

Barclays is committed to the highest levels of integrity and regulatory compliance across all of its operations and acknowledges its error. We have conducted a thorough investigation into this issue and will enhance further our compliance processes and governance to prevent such an error from reoccurring. A business improvement plan will be submitted to the JFSA.

All other business conducted by BCJL, as well as all business conducted by other Barclays entities in Japan, will not be affected by the suspension and will continue as usual.
